JUNE 30- JULY 20 2010

The Indigenous Solidarity Rides will take over 40 people from NSW on a trip to Alice Springs to attend a convergence for Aboriginal rights. Aboriginal communities in the NT are fighting to defend their land, law and culture against racist policies and government land grabs.

The Justice Rides are about exposing the realities of life under the NT intervention, and supporting Aboriginal people's resistance and fight for justice.

Indigenous and non-Indigenous people will travel together and demand:

End the intervention — Aboriginal control of Aboriginal affairs

Reinstate the Racial Discrimination Act — Abolish income management

Real jobs and real wages: No Basics Card scam

Stop black deaths in custody

End uranium mining on Aboriginal land — full land rights now
