"This Is What We Said" will be launched in February 2010. Using pictures and quotations taken from footage of actual consultations at Bagot, Ampilatwatja, Utopia and Yirrkala, this book provides a graphic account of the depth of frustration and despair of many Aboriginal people in the Northern Territory regarding the Intervention. It is therefore tragic that legislation, about to be debated in Parliament, pays scant attention to the views expressed by many Aboriginal people during the consultations process of 2009. Also included in "This Is What We Said" are quotes on the Intervention from other well known Australians and UN representatives.

The hard covered book can be ordered using the purchase order form that can be accessed via the link on the home page of www.socialpolicyconnections.com.au. It is available at A$15 plus $2 packaging and postage within Australia, per copy. Packaging and postage is free for orders of 4 or more copies within Australia. Also at this website the complete "Will they be heard?" document can be accessed free of charge. This document was launched in November 2009 by Malcolm Fraser and contains an introduction by Alastair Nicholson, plus the full transcripts of the three community consultations.
